

Have You Anything to Buy?
Try the WANT ADS.

Thursday

The Times-Dispatch

January 15, 1914.

Have You Anything to Sell?
Try the WANT ADS.

Miller & Rhoads

Invite Attention to the

New Skirting Plaids!

We have just received a shipment of New Plaids, in BEAUTIFUL COLOR COMBINATIONS now so fashionable for SEPARATE SKIRTS! They are 54 inches wide, all pure wool, and the price is $1.50 yd.

Ten different styles for your selection.

First Floor, Dress Goods Section.

9x12 ft. Wilton Rugs

Equal to Imported Patterns

People who have heretofore paid $100 and more for Imported Rugs proclaim our Rugs superior. You will say so when you have examined the quality and viewed the genuine Oriental patterns in Kermanshah, Kabistan, Sehan, Herati, Bokarah and Kashan. These handsome rugs go on sale again this week at the remarkable prices of $35.00, $40.00, $45.00, $50.00, $60.00.

Rugs--Special Prices

$60.00 Anglo-Persian, 9x12, $50.00.

Sold "as is." Kermanshah pattern.

$30.00 WILTONE RUGS $25.00
$30.00 BODY BRUSSELS RUGS $25.00

9x12 size; we have 5 Wiltone and 3 Body Brussels only; a bargain and every one perfect; in the best of patterns, but the mill we purchased them from stopped making these grades.

Third Floor.

Blankets--Extra Value--at $3.69

Just the big "wooly defenders" one wishes for these chilly nights to keep them cosy and warm.

WHITE BLANKETS--With pink or blue borders; size 70x80 inches, and weighing 5 pounds--80% WOOL! Also, Blankets with 3-inch plaids of pink and white, gray and white, blue and white; $5.00 value at..... $3.69

ALSO, TAN AND WHITE BLANKETS--Size 66x80 inches, weighing 4 1/2 pounds, and half wool. These are rare Blanket bargains, and it will pay you to buy for the future $3.69 if you have no immediate need.....

Third Floor.

SNATCH-THIEF TO JUSTICES COURT

Justice Crutchfield Compliments Young Woman Who Held Him Until Police Arrive.

Henry Clay, alias George Ross, colored, was held for the grand jury yesterday in Police Court for attempting to snatch a silver mesh purse from Miss Eva Jones, of 128 South Fourth Street, on Tuesday night while she was passing Fourth and Cary Streets. As the negro wrenched the purse, which hung by a chain from her wrist, she grabbed him and screamed for help. Several men ran to her aid and overpowered the thief. He was taken to the station and held for the grand jury. Justice Crutchfield complimented Miss Jones for her bravery.

The hearing of Robert Miller, twenty years old, alleged to have defrauded ministers of small sums of money, was continued until Saturday in order to allow detectives time to secure evidence against him.

John Johnson, colored, was held for the grand jury for assaulting and breaking the nose of Julia Smith, also colored.

L. C. Wright, twenty-six years old, who was charged with being drunk and interfering with women in the street.

Walter J. Perkins, ex-convict, was fined $100 and costs for carrying a concealed weapon, a revolver, without a permit. He was recently fined in the Hustings Court for shooting at C. M. Johnson on November 8, 1913. Pending the result of the case in the upper court Justice Crutchfield continued the hearing of the charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Joseph Jones, colored, was held for the grand jury on the charge of murder. He is alleged to have shot and killed John H. Galt, who was colored, on January 10.

Mrs. Hester Ford, who conducts a small store, was fined $50 and costs for selling cigarettes to Merrill Bosher, thirteen years old.

Samuel Galt, a grocer, was put under $100 bond for his good behavior for six months for assaulting his wife, Mrs. Ella Galt.

Wants to Locate Relatives.
Interested in a grand old home, the late of Galt, which will help him to locate relatives of A. P. Hill, a former resident of this city who died in 1880 in this town. Hill was raised in one of the suburbs of Richmond. He was a member of the Sons of the American Revolution and was a member of the Galt family. He was a member of the Galt family. He was a member of the Galt family.

POLICE MATRON.
Mrs. Rosalie Clark, matron at the First Police Station, was removed to the Memorial Hospital yesterday, suffering from heart trouble. While the condition was not regarded as serious, it was said that she was not feeling comfortably. Mrs. Clark is only recently recovered from a similar attack.

SAVINGS BANK.
The Richmond Savings Bank, 107 E. Main St., has no use to spend time on requests; the time to save is now. One dollar opens an account.

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY FOR POSTAL SAVINGS FUNDS.

PARDON GRANTED TO TOWN SERGEANT

James Hall, Who Killed Miner in St. Paul, Gets Freedom Before Entering Penitentiary.

Governor Mann yesterday granted a conditional pardon to James Hall, town sergeant of St. Paul, before he entered the State Penitentiary to begin serving his two-year term for the killing of a miner in St. Paul. Hall was convicted of manslaughter at the October term of the Circuit Court of St. Paul. He was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. His appeal was denied. His release was due to expire tonight. His release was due to expire tonight.

One day last fall Kekk and a party of seven drunken miners got off the train at St. Paul and began to shoot at the town sergeant. The citizens of St. Paul, in their capacity of town sergeant, attempted to stop the shooting. Kekk was shot and killed. The town sergeant was shot and wounded. The town sergeant was shot and wounded.

One day last fall Kekk and a party of seven drunken miners got off the train at St. Paul and began to shoot at the town sergeant. The citizens of St. Paul, in their capacity of town sergeant, attempted to stop the shooting. Kekk was shot and killed. The town sergeant was shot and wounded. The town sergeant was shot and wounded.

One day last fall Kekk and a party of seven drunken miners got off the train at St. Paul and began to shoot at the town sergeant. The citizens of St. Paul, in their capacity of town sergeant, attempted to stop the shooting. Kekk was shot and killed. The town sergeant was shot and wounded. The town sergeant was shot and wounded.

One day last fall Kekk and a party of seven drunken miners got off the train at St. Paul and began to shoot at the town sergeant. The citizens of St. Paul, in their capacity of town sergeant, attempted to stop the shooting. Kekk was shot and killed. The town sergeant was shot and wounded. The town sergeant was shot and wounded.

One day last fall Kekk and a party of seven drunken miners got off the train at St. Paul and began to shoot at the town sergeant. The citizens of St. Paul, in their capacity of town sergeant, attempted to stop the shooting. Kekk was shot and killed. The town sergeant was shot and wounded. The town sergeant was shot and wounded.

One day last fall Kekk and a party of seven drunken miners got off the train at St. Paul and began to shoot at the town sergeant. The citizens of St. Paul, in their capacity of town sergeant, attempted to stop the shooting. Kekk was shot and killed. The town sergeant was shot and wounded. The town sergeant was shot and wounded.

One day last fall Kekk and a party of seven drunken miners got off the train at St. Paul and began to shoot at the town sergeant. The citizens of St. Paul, in their capacity of town sergeant, attempted to stop the shooting. Kekk was shot and killed. The town sergeant was shot and wounded. The town sergeant was shot and wounded.

One day last fall Kekk and a party of seven drunken miners got off the train at St. Paul and began to shoot at the town sergeant. The citizens of St. Paul, in their capacity of town sergeant, attempted to stop the shooting. Kekk was shot and killed. The town sergeant was shot and wounded. The town sergeant was shot and wounded.

One day last fall Kekk and a party of seven drunken miners got off the train at St. Paul and began to shoot at the town sergeant. The citizens of St. Paul, in their capacity of town sergeant, attempted to stop the shooting. Kekk was shot and killed. The town sergeant was shot and wounded. The town sergeant was shot and wounded.

One day last fall Kekk and a party of seven drunken miners got off the train at St. Paul and began to shoot at the town sergeant. The citizens of St. Paul, in their capacity of town sergeant, attempted to stop the shooting. Kekk was shot and killed. The town sergeant was shot and wounded. The town sergeant was shot and wounded.

One day last fall Kekk and a party of seven drunken miners got off the train at St. Paul and began to shoot at the town sergeant. The citizens of St. Paul, in their capacity of town sergeant, attempted to stop the shooting. Kekk was shot and killed. The town sergeant was shot and wounded. The town sergeant was shot and wounded.

ATTEMPT TO MAKE HARDING REFINED

Commonwealth Bank Receivers File Motion for Judgment in Henrico Circuit Court.

HEAR MOTION JANUARY 29

Documents Show Monthly Amounts Taken by Bookkeeper While in Bank's Employ.

Steps which may lead to the recovery of funds stolen from the Commonwealth Bank by John H. Harding were taken yesterday morning, when a motion for judgment was filed in the Henrico Circuit Court by James W. Gorman, against the former bookkeeper. The writ is made returnable before Judge R. on Thursday morning, January 29, at 10 o'clock. Judgment for the total shortage, $23,467.72, on different counts, according to the time taken by Harding, is asked. Should the court then be possible to request, it will then be possible for the court to award any or all property owned by Harding to the Commonwealth Bank. The bank is now in the hands of the Commonwealth Bank Receivers, and the bank is now in the hands of the Commonwealth Bank Receivers.

Files List of Daily Thefts.
In the papers filed by the receivers of the Commonwealth Bank yesterday, which were taken on October 1, 1912, and ended August 13, 1913. The amount taken was $10, and other sums ranging up to $1,000. The total up to the amount sought to be recovered was $23,467.72. The shortages by months, as found by the American Audit Company, and on which interest is based, is as follows:

November 1, 1912, $600.10; December 1, 1912, $554; January 1, 1913, $56.80; February 1, 1913, $730; April 1, 1913, $212.40; May 1, 1913, $905.10; June 1, 1913, $2,223.82; July 1, 1913, $4,046.55; August 1, 1913, $3,995; September 1, 1913, $3,995.

Harding, against whom warrants were issued on January 3, and who surrendered the following morning to the police, is now at liberty on bail of $5,000 having been furnished by his father and mother for his appearance in court on January 22. John A. Lamb has been retained by his family to conduct the defense.

Arrest Followed Special Report.
The arrest of Harding followed the filing of a special report by the receivers before Judge Moncreux, of the Henrico Circuit Court. The embezzlement was discovered by the American Audit Company, which was employed by the bank to audit the books of the bank. The company found that Harding had embezzled $23,467.72 from the bank.

The motion was filed in the county court by the receivers of the Commonwealth Bank, and has property located there. No attachments, however, were issued.

BE BOUGHT CHEAPLY

Second. The eastern part of the block on Main Street, bounded as above, was sold by the city for $100,000.

The rapid growth of Richmond is essentially due to the fact that the city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history.

The rapid growth of Richmond is essentially due to the fact that the city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history.

The rapid growth of Richmond is essentially due to the fact that the city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history.

The rapid growth of Richmond is essentially due to the fact that the city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history.

The rapid growth of Richmond is essentially due to the fact that the city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history.

The rapid growth of Richmond is essentially due to the fact that the city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history.

The rapid growth of Richmond is essentially due to the fact that the city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history.

The rapid growth of Richmond is essentially due to the fact that the city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history.

The rapid growth of Richmond is essentially due to the fact that the city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history.

The rapid growth of Richmond is essentially due to the fact that the city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history.

The rapid growth of Richmond is essentially due to the fact that the city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history.

The rapid growth of Richmond is essentially due to the fact that the city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history. The city has been able to acquire property at lower figures than at any time in its history.

CHAMBER URGES CONGRESS TO ACT

Wants Appropriation for the Enlargement of Richmond Post-Office.

SPACE BADLY CONGESTED

Growth of City Has Crowded Structure, Which Was Too Small When Erected.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

SUITS AND OVERCOATS

Worth Up to $28.00

Choice $16.00

It's our Semi-Annual Clearance Sale of Richmond's Choicest Merchandise. All desirable kinds of materials--all sizes for men of every shape and size.

GANS-RAY COMPANY

BOARD EXPLAINS ITS BUDGET ESTIMATES

Gives Detail Account of Needs in Carrying Out Work During the Next Year.

In presenting the estimate of expenses and improvements contemplated for the year, the Administrative Board last night asked the Finance Committee of the Board of Health to approve a budget of $350,000, several of the items being increased over the amounts set down in the original estimate, which was $341,106.25.

The estimate was presented by Chairman Whitford and Chairman Hirschberg, and the various accounts were itemized and explained by the heads of the departments. The board of directors of the Board of Health, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Board of Health, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Board of Health, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Board of Health, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Board of Health, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Board of Health, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Board of Health, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Board of Health, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Board of Health, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Board of Health, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Board of Health, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Board of Health, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city and the installation of the parcel post system have increased the need for a larger building. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main.

The board of directors of the Board of Health, in a special session yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling upon Congress to provide an appropriation to cover the cost of enlarging the Richmond post-office building, which now occupies three quarters of the block between Tenth and Eleventh Streets on Main. The growth of the city